

RULES OF PROCEDURE

Rule 1.01: Purpose

The rules of procedure are designed to conduct the hearing under the Consumer Protection Act dealing with unfair and deceptive practice.

Rule 2.01: Place of hearing

At a place designated by the Attorney General.

Rule 2.02 Time of hearing

The time of hearings shall be designated by the Attorney General.

Rule 3.01: Presiding Officer

The Presiding Officer shall be the Attorney General of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations or his designated representative who may be either an assistant attorney general or a special assistant attorney general.

Rule 3.02 Duties of Presiding Officer

The Presiding Officer has the responsibility of hearing the testimony of witnesses and for making determinations under these rules. His opinion as to admissibility shall be final.

Rule 3.03 Change of Presiding Officer

The Presiding Officer may be changed by the Attorney General at any time or times.

Rule: 3.04 Hearing Examiner

The hearing examiner shall be appointed by the presiding officer. He shall call witnesses, and examine them. He shall also offer for introduction any tangible evidence that he desires.

Rule 4.01 Witnesses

All witnesses shall be sworn by the presiding officer. The witnesses shall be examined only by the hearing examiner and the presiding officer. They shall not be open to cross-examination by any third parties.

RULES OF PROCEDURE, con't.

Rule 4.02: Witnesses may testify to the situation in Rhode Island only.

In accordance with 42-35-10 evidence is admissible if it is of a type commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent men in the conduct of their affairs. Hearsay evidence will be weighted as to its value by the presiding officer.

Rule 4.03: Rebuttal witnesses may be offered by giving 24 hours notice to the presiding officer. The 24 hours notice may be waived by the presiding officer. Rebuttal witnesses may be examined by third-party counsel but are open to cross-examination only by the hearing examiner and the presiding officer.

Rule 4.04: Written statements be submitted by third-parties and shall be considered by the presiding officer providing they are received at least 24 hours after the close of the last hearing.